

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspaper is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century, discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything, but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty cent bottle size is sold by all good druggists.

Temperance Column.

A TEMPERANCE BOY.

You'd scarce expect one of my age To plead for temperance on the stage, And should I chance to fall below Portraying all the drunkard's woe, Don't view me with a critic's eye, Nor pass my simple story by. [Flow, Large streams from little fountains Great sots from moderate drunkards grow.

So, though I now am small and young, No rum shall ever touch my tongue. Let all the boys and girls like me From liquor pledge they will be free. Then will not our Columbia's sod Surpass by far the Emerald Isle? Yes, Ireland then will be outdone And every land beneath the sun. These thoughts inspire my youthful mind To banish grog-shops from mankind— These shops that stain our land with blood, By pouring forth a poisonous flood, Yet claimed to be a "Public Good."

Come, children, then, come one and all, And listen to the temperance call. We'll make our army large and strong, We'll sign the pledge and sing the song; Our banners wave, spread wide the truth, Rum can't repel the attacks of youth. The way to do we know right well; We'll neither make, nor buy nor sell. We will not put it to our lips, We won't import it in our ships. Our steamboats, railroads, cars and stages Shall never thrive by alcohol's wages. No store of ours shall be employed To make a place for rum to hide. We'll search him out where'er he lurks, Nor will we be rum-sellers' clerks.

Judge Cooke on Liquor.

"The people of North Carolina, in their sovereign will, have declared that the manufacture and sale of spirituous liquors to an extent heretofore allowed is a great public evil, and must be stopped. The court itself is of the opinion that if all the tears that have been shed by women and children on account of this evil could be gathered together at once, it would exceed in horror Dante's description of hell."

What's the Matter With the Saloon?

When a great strike is on and there is reason to fear trouble from the idle men, the saloons are ordered to close, as at Omaha a short time since. When a great flood has inundated a part of a city, creating unusual conditions and stopping business, the saloons are ordered closed, as at Kansas City recently. When a mob forms to storm a jail and a reign of terror ensues, the saloons are ordered closed at Evansville this week. Why, what's the matter with the saloon—the institution in control of men of proven "good moral character," the necessary "poor man's club," duly licensed and permitted by law? Such instances are an acknowledgment that saloons at such times are a menace to the public peace, a constant danger, an incident of men's baser passions, a rendezvous for anarchy. It is so at all times and everywhere, and the people ought to learn the lesson.

Saloons Building a Town.

Smithfield Herald.
A few years ago there came into our office a citizen of Jerome, a little village five miles north of Selma in this county. We asked him about things and he replied that they were somewhat dull and that what Jerome needed was "a tap." Our idea was that a saloon was just what the place did not need, but others thought with that man and so by act of the Legislature the place was incorporated and the main thing in having it done at that time was to arrange to sell liquor there. Two saloons were opened and it was not long before one of the saloon men was killed in his saloon by one of his customers. A little later a poor negro got drunk there and was put in the guard house which was set on fire and the negro was roasted to death. We are told that four others lost their lives in or near the place and that the trouble was caused mainly by the saloons. The saloons were closed there July 1st and it is now seen that they did not build the town. They were a hindrance to it. Jerome will make progress but it will not be by the saloons. No number of them could do that for the place. There never was a more mistaken idea than to conclude that saloons build a town.

A Shame!

North Carolina Baptist.

The Elizabeth City Tar Heel has the following:
"The most deplorable feature of the catastrophe at Nag's Head Sunday was the open saloon, which retained liquor while the hotel was burning, and while the proprietor's wife lay a corpse within a stone's throw of this saloon. This, too, was allowed, while two officers, one the State's prosecuting attorney, stood by as mute as an oyster, and seemingly blind, to such flagrant violation of the laws of the Commonwealth. Mind you, this was on the Sabbath day, and the saloons did not close until a non-resident appealed to the bar-keeper, 'for the sake of humanity,' to close his doors until at least the corpse of the woman had been removed. 'Horrible, isn't it? One could hardly believe that such would have been tolerated in North Carolina, where the sanctity of the Sabbath day is jealously guarded. This outrage was carried out within three miles of the spot where the first prayer of English speaking people went up to God from the American soil.' This is the liquor business! It was remembered right this saloon is a legislative pet, run by special act of the Legislature."

GOOD HUMOR.
Metropolitan Bee Keeping.—"The pleasures of life in London seem destined to be augmented, judging by the number of inquiries respecting the cost of keeping bees within the metropolitan area." (Daily Paper)
The fashion of keeping a bee and thus having one's honey fresh every morning is rapidly spreading, and it will soon be difficult to find a house in London in which one or more of these ingenious and industrious little creatures is not a favorite.

The ordinary place to keep them is, of course, a bonnet, but they have been known to affect even a new silk hat. Agriculture, like everything else, has to be learned, and we would impress upon our readers the wisdom of thinking that a bee may be left entirely to its own devices. A collar and chain are not necessary, but it must have food. Where one's house is near a flower garden the bee can be trusted to forage for itself, but if one lives, say, in Cheapside or the Minorities, one's little pet must be artificially nourished. Messrs. Buzzard fortunately make an excellent bee biscuit of compressed sugar, and Messrs. Burroughs & Welcomes' saccharine and heather mixture molassoid tablets (Lord Aysbury's brand) are already a boon to millions of the humming classes now happily domiciled in our midst.—Punch.

SAVE THE CHILDREN.

Ninety-nine of every hundred diseases that children have are due to disorders of the stomach, and these disorders are all caused by indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is just as good for children as it is for adults. Children thrive on it. Keeps their little stomachs sweet and encourages growth and development. Mrs. Henry Carter, 705 Central street, Nashville, Tenn., says: "My little boy is now three years old and has been suffering from indigestion ever since he was born. I have had the best doctors in Nashville, but failed to do him any good. After using one bottle of Kodol, he is a well baby. I recommend it to all sufferers." Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Sold by E. T. Whitehead & Co.

An Unanswerable Argument.

Portland Oregonian.
The fact that many negroes are leaving Indiana to make their homes in the South should afford food for thought to a number of New Englanders. It is easy to deplore the condition of the colored race in the Southern States when the speaker has no acquaintance with either the negro or the South. The movement from Indiana is an unanswerable argument, and no talking can get around it. The Indiana immigrants doubtless expect to behave themselves.

The first newspaper printed in the United States was published in Boston on Sept. 25, 1790.

Mrs. Mollie Allen, of South Fork, Ky., says she has prevented attacks of cholera morbus by taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets when she felt an attack coming on. Such attacks are usually caused by indigestion and these Tablets are just what is needed to cleanse the stomach and ward off the approaching attack. Attacks of bilious colic may be prevented in the same way. For sale by E. T. Whitehead & Co., Scotland Neck, and Leggett's drug store, Hobgood.

The first Union flag was unfurled on Jan. 1, 1776, over the camp at Cambridge.

SUICIDE PREVENTED.

The startling announcement that a preventative of suicide had been discovered will interest many. A run down system, or despondency invariably precedes suicide and something has been found to prevent that condition which makes suicide likely. At the first thought of self destruction take Electric Bitters. It being a great tonic and nerve will strengthen the nerves and build up the system. It's a great Stomach, Liver and Kidney regulator. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by E. T. Whitehead & Co., druggists.

The first complete sewing machine was patented by Elias Howe, Jr., in 1846.

NOT OVER-WISE.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grasshopper, but in the act of heedlessness treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For sale by E. T. Whitehead & Co., Scotland Neck, and Leggett's drug store, Hobgood.

THE BEST WAY.

If I make a face at Billy,
He will make a face at me—
That makes two ugly faces,
And a quarrel, don't you see?
And when I double up my fist
And hit him, and he'd pay
Me back by giving me a kick,
Unless I run away.
But if I smile at Billy,
'Tis sure to make him laugh,
You'd say, if you could see him,
'Twas jollier by half.
Than kicks and ugly faces.
I tell you all the while,
It's pleasanter for any boy
(Or girl) to laugh and smile.

Can You?

"Sir," said a lad, coming down to one of the wharfs in Boston, and addressing a well-known merchant, "have you any berth on your ship? I want to earn something."
"What can you do?"
"I can try my best to do whatever I am put to," answered the boy.
"What have you done?"
"I have saved and split all of mother's wood for nigh on two years."
"What have you not done?" asked the gentleman.
"Well, sir," answered the boy, after a moment's pause, "I have not whistled in school once for a whole year."
"That's enough," said the gentleman. "You may ship aboard this vessel, and I hope to see you master of it some day. A boy who can master a woodpile and bridle his tongue must be made of good stuff."

THE AID OF A DOCTOR.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux," (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant, of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was cured without having a doctor. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by E. T. Whitehead & Co., Scotland Neck, and Leggett's drug store, Hobgood.

Pins were first manufactured in this country soon after the war of 1812.

DEWITT IS THE NAME.

When you go to buy Witch Hazel Salve for the name DEWITT is on every box. The pure, unadulterated Witch Hazel is used in making DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which is the best salve for cuts, burns, bruises, boils, sores and all. The popularity of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, due to its many cures, has caused numerous worthless counterfeits to be placed on the market. The genuine bears the name of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. Sold by E. T. Whitehead & Co.

The first English newspaper was published in 1588.

END OF BITTER FIGHT.

"Two physicians had a long and stubborn fight with an abscess on my right lung," writes J. F. Hughes, of Dupont, Ga., "and gave me up. Everybody thought my time had come. As a last resort I tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. The benefit I received was striking and I was on my feet again in a few days. Now I've entirely regained my health." It conquers all Coughs, Colds and Throat and Lung troubles. Guaranteed by E. T. Whitehead & Co.

The Real Heroes.

REV. P. R. LAW in Lumberton Rehearsal.
It does not often turn out that a man of extraordinary sagacity, who sees further into evident tendencies and even certain results from existing causes or conditions and avows his allegiance to a line of action in accord therewith does so without ices to his influence and popularity. The great blessing of such seers to the world is obtained only when they are in power and are immovably resolved to follow their better judgment in the expectation of popularity later in the obvious fruition. This has occurred many a time and yet far too seldom. There is constant need of such men and doing because every progressive project is fought by the little glibly crowd which is always in evidence to oppose them by noise rather than by brains, patriotism, decency or religion. There is scarcely a splendid work anywhere that was not wrought by men who were called upon to sacrifice present opportunity in order to its accomplishment. In very fact many a blessed institution ought to be labelled as a monument to the moral heroism, patriotism and Christianity of the men who dared to build them.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for testimonials.
